

Submitting Your Genealogy

Since the Clan Moffat Society was founded in 1984 Members have been contributing to the genealogy database. The results of these contributions have resulted in a genealogy database that now contains over 68,000 individuals.

You can see this online at <http://genealogy.clanmoffat.org/>

We hope that you will consider adding your genealogy to our database where it can be seen by anyone with an internet connection, and hopefully added to by other researchers.

Before you get started, if you have the chance check out our database to see if you, or any of your ancestors are already included. This might help cut down on the amount of form filling you need to do if you have to write this out.

There are several ways to contribute your data:

1. If you already have your genealogy data stored in genealogy software on your computer, the easiest way to contribute your data is electronically – either by sending a copy of the family file, or a GEDCOM file exported from the family file. Send this file by eMail to Genealogy@ClanMoffat.org
2. If you don't have your genealogy stored electronically, but know of a relative who does, contact them and see if they'd consider sending it to us electronically as either a software family file or a GEDCOM file
3. If you already have your genealogy in a written form, you can send photocopies of the data that you currently have.
4. If you don't have your genealogy prepared either electronically or on paper, you can use the forms accompanying these instructions to get you started. There are two different forms – the Lineage form, and the Family Group Sheet.

Start with the Lineage form, and fill in as much as you can there, starting with yourself and working back through your Moffat ancestors. If you have more than 6 generations, continue on the back of the form, using the same layout as is on the front of the form. You can download extra copies of the form from

<http://ClanMoffat.org/LineageSheet.pdf>

For each of the generations, fill out a Family Group Sheet for the parents and if possible all of their children, including your ancestor. If you need more copies of the form, make them before you start, or download the form again from

<http://ClanMoffat.org/FamilyGroupSheet.pdf>

To avoid confusion, please write out dates as dd mmm yyyy – eg 25 Mar 1895.

Please take the time to get your genealogy added to our database where your contributions might help others, and others might find it and help you.

Thank You!!!!

LINEAGE SHEET

Your Name: _____ Member #: _____

This form will be used to enter your genealogy into the Clan Moffat Genealogical Database. Please start with yourself and work back to your earliest Moffat ancestor. If you need room for more generations, please use another sheet. Give as complete information as possible, include middle names or initials if known. For places try to fill in city, county, state or province and country. To avoid confusion with dates, use the format dd mmm yyyy – eg 26 Mar 1899.
